

[Type here]

Irrigation Technician – start date January 2018

Larix Landscape Ltd. provides full scale landscape services to high end residential clients. Larix Landscape is a fast growing company in Victoria, B.C. that focuses on client and employee goals to complete landscape projects that are sustainable, economical aesthetically pleasing.

Job Description: Your main responsibilities will be Irrigation service with additional landscape duties. To achieve this, you will be working both alone and as part of a team. Your work will enable the company to bid on larger contracts and high end residential contracts.

Requirements and Qualifications: You must have 2 - 3 years previous irrigation experience. You will be a good leader, self starter, have good interpersonal skills and have a positive attitude. You will have demonstrated strong skills in time management, organization skills and communication skills and will be able to work weekend shifts. Must be able to lift 50 lbs.

This position is $20 per/hr plus year end bonus